Important Notes on College Application Methods

ÿ Regular Admission Registration

• Applicants accepted to multiple universities in the regular admissions process must register with only one university within the regular admissions registration period. - Payment must be made to only one university during the regular admissions registration period [February 10, 2027 (Wed) – February 12, 2027 (Fri)]. - Failure to comply will result in being classified as a "Violating University Admission Application Method," which may lead to the invalidation of admission.

ÿ Scope of Allowed Multiple Applications

• For universities with regular admissions (including teacher training colleges, excluding junior colleges and industrial universities), between universities with different admission period groups Alternatively, multiple applications are possible between recruitment units within the same university with different recruitment period groups.

ÿ Multiple applications prohibited

• Successful applicants (including initial and supplementary successful applicants) of universities accepting rolling admissions (including industrial universities, teacher training colleges, and junior colleges) are subject to "regular admissions Cannot apply for "Recruitment and Additional Recruitment"

• In regular admissions, between universities (including teacher training colleges) with the same recruitment period group, or between recruitment period groups within the same university Multiple applications within the same recruitment unit (including between general and special admissions) are prohibited. • Industrial universities and junior colleges have no restrictions on the recruitment period group.

• Successful applicants in the early admission process for junior colleges may not apply to admissions conducted by universities, industrial universities, colleges of education, or junior colleges during other recruitment periods; similarly, those who have been accepted through early admissions at universities, industrial universities, or colleges of education may not apply to admissions conducted by junior colleges during other recruitment periods. • Successful applicants in the early admission process for industrial universities may not apply to admissions conducted by universities, industrial universities, colleges of education, or junior colleges during other recruitment periods; similarly, those who have been accepted through early admissions at universities, colleges of education, or junior colleges may not apply to admissions conducted by industrial universities during other recruitment periods.

• Those who have been accepted and registered in the regular admissions (including final registration and additional registration during the process of filling vacancies due to non-registration) are "additional admissions" Prohibition of application to • Additional recruitment for non-registered regular admissions is limited to those who forfeited their regular admission registration by 16:00 on the registration deadline. Available

• For industrial universities and junior colleges, you can apply for additional admissions without withdrawing your registration for regular admissions.

ÿ Double registration prohibited

• To two or more universities (including industrial universities, teacher training colleges, and junior colleges) for which you apply by recruitment period and enroll in the same semester Successful applicants must register with only one university (including payment of the registration confirmation deposit).

• If a successful candidate in the regular admissions receives notification of supplementary acceptance from another university during the supplementary acceptance announcement period, the successful candidate... You must immediately notify any universities you do not wish to enroll in of your intention to withdraw your registration.

The request form for cancellation of acceptance and tuition refund can be downloaded from the university's admissions website.

ÿ Measures against violators of multiple applications and double registration

• Between universities (including industrial universities, teacher training universities, and junior colleges) and universities (including junior colleges) and various schools established under special laws The principle of prohibiting multiple applications and double registration does not apply to

• If a violation of multiple application is confirmed through a search of computerized data after the university admission process has concluded, admission will be invalidated.

Applicant Notice

ÿ Admission will be revoked if a prospective high school graduate fails to graduate in the relevant academic year. ÿ Applicants who cause serious social controversy may be disqualified or have their acceptance revoked. ÿ Prospective early graduates must submit documents proving their early graduation. ÿ If it is confirmed that an applicant was admitted based on false information on the application form, forged, altered, or falsified application documents, or obtained admission through fraudulent means, the admission will be revoked regardless of whether it occurred before or after enrollment, and tuition and other fees already paid will not be refunded.

ÿ Having completed disability registration pursuant to Article 32 of the Welfare Act for Persons with Disabilities, and advancing through the admission process due to various disabilities or physical delays If support is required during the process, a request must be made in advance.
ÿ Failure to pay tuition within the registration period will be deemed a forfeiture of registration. ÿ During the admissions period, announcements and the announcement of successful candidates (including supplementary admissions) will not be individually notified but posted on the Woosuk University website (https://woosuk.ac.kr); therefore, applicants must always pay attention to these announcements, and any disadvantages resulting from failure to do so shall be the applicant's responsibility. ÿ Applicants assigned a reserve ranking for regular admissions may not relinquish their assigned ranking (i.e., they may not withdraw their application).
ÿ Please provide a contact number on the application form where you can be reached quickly, and the applicant bears responsibility for any consequences resulting from failure to contact you.
As this information belongs to the student, if your contact information changes, you must notify the University Admissions Team of the updated contact details to avoid any disadvantages.
ÿ In principle, submitted applications cannot be cancelled, and submitted documents will not be returned under any circumstances. ÿ After the application is submitted, applicants who do not meet the eligibility criteria for each admission type will not be granted acceptance or admission.
Cancellation (including cases discovered later, and the application fee is non-refundable) ÿ Applicants' admission scores are not disclosed ÿ Even if the number of applicants falls short of the recruitment quota for a specific department, if admission scores are significantly higher than other applicants Applicants deemed unsuitable for admission due to low scores may be disqualified. ÿ In the event of discrepancies between the information on the application form, examination ticket, and receipt, the information on the application form will be used as the standard. Applicants are solely responsible for any disadvantages arising from failure to meet eligibility requirements, errors in the application or submitted documents, omissions, or illegibility; therefore, applicants must submit their applications with utmost care.
ÿ Candidates for interviews or practical exams must bring their examination ticket and identification card. ÿ New students are not permitted to take a leave of absence during their first semester (the semester of admission). However, in cases of military service or illness... May grant a leave of absence ÿ Departments marked with a "teacher certification" designation are subject to change during enrollment based on the Ministry of Education's re-approval of the teacher certification program. ÿ Admission or enrollment will be revoked for any applicant who violates relevant laws or the precautions specified in these admission guidelines. ÿ Additional documents beyond those listed may be requested if necessary.
ÿ Matters not specified in the recruitment guidelines will be handled in accordance with the decisions of the University's Admissions Committee.
