15. Payment and Refund of Tuition (Registration Confirmation Deposit)

A. Payment of Tuition (Registration Confirmation Deposit)

ÿ Successful candidates (including additional successful candidates) in the 1st and 2nd rounds of rolling admissions must pay the registration confirmation deposit (100,000 KRW) within the payment period, and the final tuition is the amount excluding the registration confirmation deposit.

Admission is possible only if payment is made within the final registration period.

ÿ Successful candidates in regular admission (including additional successful candidates) must pay the full tuition fee within the registration period to be admitted.

B. Application for Tuition (Registration Confirmation Deposit) Refund

ÿ You can apply for a refund of tuition (registration confirmation deposit) through the Admissions Inquiry on our university website.

ÿ Tuition fees paid within the registration period will be refunded in full by the refund deadline (start of the semester); for those who withdraw after the refund deadline, the refund will be processed in accordance with the Ministry of Education Ordinance 'Rules on University Tuition Fees'.

ÿ Tuition refunds can be requested online through the university website, and the funds will be deposited into the bank account in the name of the applicant or guardian specified at the time of application.

ÿ Refund requests are possible on public holidays, but deposit processing is not available.

16. Important Notices for Exam Takers

A. You may apply to up to 5 universities in the 1st Early Admission round, up to 5 in the 2nd Early Admission round, and up to 3 in the Regular Admission round.

B. Unlike general universities (limited to 6 applications for rolling admissions), junior colleges have no limit on the number of applications for the 1st and 2nd rounds of rolling admissions.

C. Successful applicants in the rolling admissions process (including additional successful applicants) are prohibited from applying for regular admissions regardless of whether they have paid the registration confirmation deposit. (Same as general universities)

ÿ Please be careful to frequently check the admission status with the universities you applied to to avoid any issues.

D. Regarding the prohibition of double registration, those who have applied to two or more universities for the same semester of admission during each recruitment period (early or regular) must register at only one university.

ÿ After the freshman recruitment period ends, if the application, acceptance, and registration status of new students at universities nationwide (junior colleges, general universities, and industrial universities) is electronically searched and it is confirmed that initial successful candidates and supplementary successful candidates from early admission have applied for regular admission, which is prohibited, or have double-registered, Admission may be cancelled.

ÿ Admission may be cancelled if double registration is confirmed after the semester begins (registering at two or more universities).

E. Matters not specified in these admission guidelines will be handled according to the decision of our university's Admissions Committee.

F. Corrections to the application cannot be made after submission, and failure to meet eligibility requirements may result in disqualification.

G. Our university operates Chapel as a required general education course.

Ah. All contact regarding applicants will be made individually via the phone number listed on the application form, and the applicant bears responsibility for any inability to be contacted.

Submitted documents will not be returned.

D. Information on Personal Information Collection

ÿ Information collected after admission is provided and utilized as data necessary for academic operations.

ÿ Information collected during the application process is provided to external companies for the announcement of successful candidates and registration.

ÿ Information collected during the admission process is retained for 10 years regardless of admission status.

ÿ Individual admission scores are not disclosed.

17. Violations of college admission application

A. Caution regarding violations of multiple applications and double registration

ÿ Relevant Basis: Article 42 and Articles 42-2, 3 of the Enforcement Decree of the Higher Education Act

ÿ Admission will be cancelled if the prohibition on multiple applications and double registration is violated.

B. Precautions

ÿ Scope of Permitted Multiple Applications: For universities accepting rolling admissions (including industrial universities, teacher training colleges, and junior colleges), multiple applications are permitted even if the admission periods are the same.

ÿ Those who have been accepted through rolling admissions (initial acceptance and supplementary acceptance) cannot apply for regular admissions or autonomous (additional) admissions even if they have not paid the registration confirmation deposit, and admission will be cancelled if this is violated.

ÿ Those who have been accepted to one or more universities through rolling admissions must pay the registration confirmation deposit to only one university.

ÿ During the regular admission period, multiple applications are allowed between junior colleges and between junior colleges and four-year universities. You may also apply to a junior college even if you have been accepted to a four-year university's regular admission.

ÿ Those who have double-registered or violated the admission application method will have their admission revoked if confirmed through a subsequent search of computer records.
